Subject: Men's Sheds and community Sheds

[REDACTED] [REDACTED]

At present there is no policy on Men's Sheds to guide local Government. Some councils do it very well but others are lagging well behind.
This is important to Men's physical, mental and spiritual health and wellbeing and therefore important to every community.
There are currently over 185 Sheds and development committees listed on our books.

Please develop a policy on Men's Sheds and don't get it confused with community Sheds which have different needs and may need a different policy.

Yours faithfully
Trevor Taylor.
