Subject: re Councillor Gifts

Good morning David

In relation to Councillors and gifts:

David

1 .CAN YOU GIVE ME AN EXAMPLE OF A REASON FOR AN APPROPRIATE GIFT TO BE GIVEN TO A COUNCILLOR WHO HAS BEEN ELECTED BY RATEPAYERS AND PAID A SALARY TO MAKE COMMUNITY DECISIONS ON THE BASIS FAIRNESS AND TO BENEFIT THE DISTRICT.

2 Would it not be better to have a no gift policy such as staff members?

Let's clean up this mess now.

It is no good making peace meal policies.

3 Also Unions should be banned from making gifts as this brings politics into the occasion and as the WALG president Said in yesterday's West Politics must be kept of LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

4 There should be a cap on candidate electoral expenses as pointed out with the debacle and unfairness In the recent City of Mandurah elections.

David please answer these question individually and try to reply in less than a month like the last time I e-mailed.

Regards
